AT THE HAPPY HOUR

Those who attend the Happy Hour toeeing an extra strong bill and large variety of superior acts, according to singers and dancers, from "the Paradise of the Pacific," is a duo of unusual vo- dent. calists and a headliner or feature act on any bill, the management says. It offers to refund the money to all disappointed persons.

Sig. Gregorio . rileda, Tenor de Opera, carries a large nume. of excelent press criticisms and he is said to have appeared before some of the best audiences in the country. His act is guaranteed by the Happy Hour to be of unusual merit. He will render selections in English, French and Spanish tonight as well as a selection from an Italian opera. He will also sing the song which has made a great bit everywhere entit-led "The Dreams."

Sandow and Dagneau, comedy sketen artists and entertainers, will also appear in the Happy Hour bill. Miss Lucile Garceo, "The Girl from Mexico," a singer and dancer known as the "Girl of the Golden Votce and the Educated Feet," will be seen tonight." oill of features," will present "A Trip Chinatown."

The manager says he has exerted imself in the selection of the above program for the Happy Hour commenc ng tonight. He says all acts are of inusual ability and something new and entertaining. There will be an entire change of program Thursday.
